

Discover the way to bottomless powder rides in Hokkaido with this custom-made backcountry trip which will be tailored to your hunger for snow during 6 days of dream-like skiing.

Revolved around the region of Niseko, you will be lead in a private van by your ACMG-certified guide Stephane Gagnon who has spent multiple seasons in the region and will bring you to amazing spots away from the powder stress of the ski resorts to make fresh tracks.

The trip is centered on ski touring but will allow you to enjoy the best of Japan's winter travel. steaming Onsens (traditional hot springs), savor mind-blowing Washoku (Japanese cuisine) and feel the respect and hospitality of the Japanese people.

Program overview

Day		Day
1	Meet your guides at Sapporo Airport Private Transfer to Niseko area	6	Ski D5, ski touring Niseko range traverse
2	Ski D1, off-piste warm-up Moiwa/Annupuri	7	Ski D6, ski touring Sea side touring
3	Ski D2, side country Rusutsu	8	Ski D7, ski touring Summit to Onsen
4	Ski D3, ski touring Yoteizan volcano	9	Return flight or Transfer to Tokyo Private Transfer to Sapporo Airport
5	Ski D4, ski touring Niseko range traverse

(this is an indicative program and is subject to change depending on weather conditions)

Details

Price for 8 days, including 6 days of skiing:

3'999 USD

Included in the price:

- private transfers from start to end
- accommodation with breakfast and dinner
- entrance fee to the onsens or cultural visits included in the program
- private guide and support staff

Not included:

- flight ticket
- lift tickets (depending on the program)
- luggage transfer for ongoing travels
- travel insurances
- rental gear (inc. Avalanche safety gear) *
- internet router *

* : service available upon request

This trip is run in partnership with Japan Dimension a local tour operator run by outdoor and cultural guides based in Japan. You know you are on trip organized by people who know the country and the culture and provide small size, high-end services as well as 24h assistance service.

Treat yourself with the impressive terrain of the Hakuba Valley historically known for the 1998 winter olympics and now home of the Freeride World Tour. Though, not as famous as Hokkaido, Hakuba receives equally impressive storm which can drop two meters of cold snow in an instant.

Follow your private ACMG-certified guide Stephane Gagnon and access intermediate to aggressive backcountry terrain above 2000m to treat yourself with waste deep powder runs, followed by incredible Japanese cuisine and scenic hot springs at night.

The trip is centered on ski touring yet it will also open the doors to the ancestral Japanese alpine culture with the option to visit some major historical assets in the region.

Program overview

Day		Day
1	Land in Tokyo Private transfer to Hakuba	5	Ski D4, side country Local « secret » resort
2	Ski D1, side country Hakuba Cortina	6	Optional visit at Zennoji temple in Nagano and transfer to Tokyo Celebratory dinner
3	Ski D2, ski Touring Tsugaike Kogen	7	Return flight or trip extension in Kyoto
4	Ski D3, ski Touring Hakuba Traverse

(this is an indicative program and is subject to change depending on weather conditions)

Details

Price for 7 days, including 4 days of skiing:

2'799 USD

Included in the price:

- private transfers from start to end
- accommodation with breakfast and dinner
- entrance fee to the onsens or cultural visits included in the program
- private guide and support staff

Not included:

- flight ticket
- lift tickets (depending on the program)
- luggage transfer for ongoing travels
- travel insurances
- rental gear (inc. Avalanche safety gear) *
- internet router *

* : service available upon request

This trip is run in partnership with Japan Dimension a local tour operator run by outdoor and cultural guides based in Japan. You know you are on trip organized by people who know the country and the culture and provide small size, high-end services as well as 24h assistance service.

